Disclaimer: The Massachusetts Department of Agricultural Resources (MDAR) makes no endorsement of any companies, organizations, persons, products, trade or brand names referenced in this Rights of Way Sensitive Area Materials List ("the list"). Active Ingredients on the list are reviewed pursuant to a Cooperative Agreement between MDAR and the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection. Only environmental fate and toxicological data, including eco-toxicological data, are reviewed when evaluating an active ingredient's suitability for inclusion on the list. Inclusion on the list does not represent any endorsement by MDAR as to the efficacy of the active ingredient for rights-of-way vegetation management.

CHANGES TO THE SENSITIVE AREA MATERIALS LIST FOR 2007:

NEW ADDITIONS

The following products have been added to the Sensitive Area Materials list:

- Polaris Herbicide (EPA#: 241-346-228)
- Polaris RR Herbicide (EPA#: 241-273-228)

Both products are supplemental registrations of products which are currently on the List. A supplemental registration allows a registrant to permit the distribution or sale of a registered product under another's name and address. A supplemental registration is also referred to as a "distributor product". Distributor products are identical in all but name and EPA registration number to the original product.

Polaris Herbicide is a supplemental registration of BASF's Arsenal Herbicide (EPA# 241-346). Polaris RR Herbicide is a supplemental registration of BASF's Arsenal Railroad Herbicide (EPA# 241-273).
